SHOWS EVIL OF TREATY ITSELF

Senator Moses, in Address Here
Today, Says It is Ground Enough
For United States to Keep Out

WORSE THAN THE LEAGUE

Sees Sentiment Against Covenant in Maine Vote and Primary Results in His Own State

Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire, who addressed a republican meeting in the court room on the third floor of the court house this afternoon, devoted his remarks entirely to the Versailles treaty of peace, discussing it at an entirely new angle. He took up the treaty of peace and showed that it in itself, aside from the league of nations, was sufficient ground for the United States keeping out of the league.

"There has been lots of talking about the league covenant," he declared, "which comprises only 26 out of the 440 articles of the treaty, to the neglect of the other 414.

"The obligations and implications in these 414 articles are so much worse than the covenant that no man can read them without being appalled at that uncanny method by which the European diplomats took advantage of President Wilson's ignorance and tied the United States up in all the rotten alliances ever perpetrated in Europe."

The Arlington band played several selections on the court house lawn before the meeting and a local glee club of eight voices sang several campaign songs following Senator Moses' address.

Mrs. Theodore Wetmore of Minneapolis, who has been making an automobile tour of the state, speaking at small towns, arrived shortly before three o'clock and began talking shortly after three o'clock. The court room was packed and jammed with people.

Senator Moses is a "bitter-ended" and "irreconcilable" and every other term, which has been applied to those senators who are opposed to the treaty in any form.

He is a close personal friend of Senator Borah and said he did not believe the report that Senator Borah would retire from the campaign. Senator Moses discussed the attitude of the Idaho senator informally before going to the court house to speak. He declared that Senator Borah had always been a "free lance" and that none of his speaking dates had ever been made by the republican national committee.

"If the people were in favor of a league of nations," Senator Moses said, "I would have been swamped in the primary in my state. I made no apologies for my position in my campaign for renomination. I was opposed by a pro-leaguer and an ardent advocate of woman suffrage. I had always opposed woman suffrage. But I defeated my opponent two to one, purely on the strength of my position in regard to the league. Soon after that came the 65,000 republican majority in Maine. Regardless of what you may be told the democrats made the league the sole issue of the Maine campaign, to the utter disregard to state issues."

In his speech this afternoon, Senator Moses pointed out that President Wilson fulfilled his threat to tie up the treaty and the league, and that he immediately became a "bitter-ended." He gave the reasons for his position and showed what the treaty lays upon the United States.

"In reply to the democrats who want to know what we would do when we scrapped the league," the speaker said, "I would establish a new entente without undertaking to put the world in a straight jacket or reduce the obligations of every nation to the frozen form of a treaty from which they can not escape for fifty-one years, as in the case of the Versailles treaty."

G. O. P. SPECIAL TO VISIT RUSHVILLE

Campaign Novelty Looks Like Steam Engine Off The Track But Runs Like an Automobile.

IS COMING HERE WEDNESDAY

The "G. O. P. Special," which looks like a steam engine which has just jumped the track but runs along smoothly like an automobile, will visit Rushville some time next Wednesday afternoon or evening. A picture of the special appeared on the front page of the Indianapolis Star this morning. It is declared to be the best novelty produced this campaign.

The special will be in charge of Col. Hiram Bearss, of Peru, Ind., who won fame as a soldier during a long and spectacular career with the "First Fight" Marines. In addition to the colonel there will be one or two speakers aboard, a quartet of singers, and a complete motion picture outfit equipped to show films in rural communities.

From its rear platform speeches will be made and campaign literature distributed. The "Special" leaves Indianapolis next Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock and is scheduled to visit Shelbyville and Greensburg before coming to Rushville, indicating that it will be here some time late in the afternoon.

J. Sandy Young of Indianapolis, Secretary of the Veteran's Republican Club, and John W. McCrum of Huntington, Ind., were here today advertising the coming of the locomotive, and asserted that the public will be surprised. They stated that the delegation will leave Greensburg at 2:30 and will stop in Milroy for a while, and will arrive here about four o'clock.

VISITING NURSE RESIGNS PLACE

Miss Ruth Gronier Will Remain Until Successor is Named, Woman's Council Reports

ANNUAL MEETING IS HELD

Reports Shows Balance Oct. 1 of $528.84—Auto Enables Nurse
To Make More Visits

The Woman's Council completed the fiscal year October first and in a report of its financial condition shows that a wonderful year has just closed. The report of the funds accomplished reveals many interesting facts as to the work of Miss Ruth Gronier, visiting nurse during the year from October 1, 1919, to the present time.

One of the most regrettable facts which came before the meeting was the resignation of Miss Gronier, who will leave as soon as her vacancy is filled. Miss Gronier will be married on October 31 to Herbert Sterling Rader of Littleton, N. C., and they will reside in that city.

The final meeting of the year for the Woman's Council was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. M. Green, and was more in the form of a party, with an unusually large attendance. The different reports were read at this time.

The report of Miss Anna Bohannon, treasurer, showed that the Council has a surplus of $528.84 to begin the new year with, and is larger than the surplus at the beginning of last year, when there was $442.95 on hand.

The visiting nurse has had the use of an automobile for seven months, which has enabled her to make more visits and cover the territory more thoroughly than before. The machine was donated to the Woman's Council for that purpose and was purchased with a fund raised by the Rotary Club among the business men of Rushville. A general vote of thanks was made in their yearly report for the car.

The reports month by month of the visiting nurse are as follows, and will give the public a good idea of the amount of work which the visiting nurse has before her each month:

October, 1919, 240 visits, 30 patients, 58 Metropolitan visits, 7 fumigations, no deaths.

November, 1919, 201 visits, 33 patients, 20 Metropolitan visits, 5 fumigations, no deaths.

December, 1919, 183 visits, 38 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 3 fumigations, 2 deaths.

January, 1920, 173 visits, 53 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 8 fumigations, no deaths.

February, 195 visits, 57 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 5 fumigations, no deaths.

March, 218 visits, 56 patients, 47 Metropolitan visits, 6 fumigations, 1 death.

April, 244 visits, 63 patients, 15 Metropolitan visits, three fumigations, 1 death.

May, 255 visits, 41 patients, 70 Metropolitan visits, four fumigations, 1 death.

June, 232 visits, 43 patients, 16 Metropolitan visits, two fumigations, 1 death.

July, 98 visits, 25 patients, 34 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 2 deaths.

August, 78 visits, 19 patients, 20 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 1 death.

September, 138 visits, 38 patients, 45 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 3 deaths.

The total for the year is as follows: Visits, 2355; patients, 486; Metropolitan visits 368; fumigations 46; deaths 14.

The Metropolitan visits referred to above are paid for at the rate of 50c each by the Metropolitan Insurance Company, as the visiting nurse has charge of their sick.

Miss Gronier's report showed that 1574 physical examinations had been conducted in the public schools in this city last semester and so far this term.

The Woman's Council has an application for the visiting nurse position.

G. H. WARD MAY NOT PRESIDE AS JUDGE

Defense in Alvea Conspiracy Case
Objects to Method by Which
He Was Selected

SECRET DRAWING OBJECTION

Winchester Attorney Intimates He Will Sustain Petition and Not Assume Jurisdiction

Judge George H. Ward of Winchester, who came here yesterday to set the date for the trial of the state against Gregg Alvea, may not assume jurisdiction of the case, on account of a petition offered by the attorneys for Alvea, who requested that he not try the case.

The petition offered by the defendant caused quite a wrangle in circuit court, yesterday afternoon late, as Judge Ward was delayed in reaching here, and when the defendant insisted that his appointment was unlawful, a series of arguments prevailed.

Judge Ward was appointed by Gov. Goodrich to try the case, after Judge Sparks had certified the conditions to the executive.

The defendant in objecting to Judge Ward, set out in their complaint that the striking off of the five judges was not legally done, and that it was done secretly. When Alvea requested a change of judge, it was granted and five jurists were named by Judge Sparks.

The state was ordered to strike off two of these names in writing, and the defense was granted the same privilege, and the remaining judge was to be the one to hear the case.

It so happened that of the five judges, the state struck off the names of Mr. Thompson and Willis Ellis of Anderson. The defense struck off the names of Mr. Thompson and William A. Bond of Richmond.

The secret drawing left two judges that were qualified instead of one, as the state and defense each struck off Mr. Thompson. The two left were Jere West of Crawfordville and Luther Pence of Anderson.

The court record showed that Judge West was appointed, but was unable to try the case, and "the court being unable to select a capable jurist or attorney in the state of good standing, the facts herein are certified to the governor."

The defense brought out a point in a case of this kind, on which there is no ruling made by the higher courts.

Judge Ward while on the bench yesterday stated that he was not fully decided what to do about the petition of the defendant asking that his appointment be set aside, but stated that the court had previously erred on at least three points: that in a criminal case, the defendant should be given a fair trial, and that nothing should be done secretly, but that the striking off of the names should be done in open court; that where two judges remained unchallenged that each of them should be asked separately by the court to assume jurisdiction, and that the Governor should not be asked until each of the remaining judges had refused to take the case.

For a third citation of the court's error, he called attention to the fact that the record was not clearly and plainly written on the entry docket. Donald L. Smith, assistant prosecutor, stated that Judge Pence told him that Judge Pence of Anderson had also refused to try the case, but the record did not show in writing.

NO EVIDENCE OF PLOT FOUND

New York District Attorney Exonerates Brooklyn Club

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 2.—Attempts have been made to bribe the players of the Brooklyn base ball club to throw the 1920 world series to the Cleveland team, District Attorney Lewis declared today at the conclusion of his investigation.

Lewis in a long statement reviewing the history of his probe said "my investigation has not discovered a suspicion that an attempt had been made to fix the coming world series next week. As the result of my investigation I would consider it very dangerous for gamblers to try to fix the 1920 world's series."

EVIDENCE IN THREE DIVORCE CASES HEARD

Mildred Preston is Granted Decree of Separation From John Preston on Payment of Costs.

OTHERS UNDER ADVISEMENT

The evidence in three divorce cases was heard this morning in circuit court, and one divorcee was granted to the plaintiff. Two of three cases involved colored people of Carthage.

Mildred Preston was granted a divorce from John Preston, upon payment of the costs, and she was enjoined from marrying for a period of two years. The evidence was also heard in the case of George T. Newsom against Kitty Ann Newsom, colored people of Carthage.

Most of the morning was taken up with the divorce case of Quincy Buckner against Mary Buckner, also colored people from Carthage. Ten of the fifteen witnesses were used, and the plaintiff based his actions on the conduct of his wife and a man named Elwood Watkins. Mrs. Buckner was represented in court by Robert Lee Brokenburr, a colored attorney of Indianapolis, and John A. Titzworth represented Mr. Buckner. The case was taken under advisement.

ORANGE TOWNSHIP MAN KILLED IN OHIO

Walter Douthitt Loses Life When Boiler Exploded at Cloverdale

BODY REACH ST. PAUL TODAY

Walter Douthitt, former resident of Orange township, was killed yesterday at Cloverdale, O., when a boiler exploded in the factory where he was working. Douthitt and his family left Orange township last spring, and he leaves a wife and two children.

The remains were brought to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Minnie Reddenbaugh, in St. Paul this morning, and funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Moscow Christian church, with burial in the cemetery nearby.

The deceased was 27 years old, and besides the relatives mentioned above, he is survived by a mother, one sister and three brothers who live in the vicinity of Moscow. A series of tragic deaths has prevailed in the family, as a sister of the deceased was burned to death recently and a brother was kicked by a mule a few years ago and died almost instantly at his home near Moscow.

COMMISSION SETS FIRST COAL PRICE

State Body Orders Operators to Ship 36 Cars of Fuel at $4
A Ton From Mines

WILL RELIEVE A SHORTAGE

Shipment to Fill Agreement to Provide Coal for Utilities and Schools Running Short

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—The Indiana coal and food commission fixed the first coal prices today.

It ordered the American Mining Company of Brazil and Knox county coal operators to sell 36 cars of coal they have on hand to the Indiana utilities and schools suffering from the lack of fuel at $4.00 a ton from the mouth of the mine, Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the commission, announced today.

This is in accordance with an agreement reached between the operators and the commission at Terre Haute, by which the operators agreed to furnish fuel to the utilities and schools which Eschbach notified them were in need of the fuel through written lists he sends out each week.

The coal for which the price was fixed will not be sent out in bulk but will be consigned only to the utilities and schools that are strictly in need of fuel.

The coal is the same grade that has been retailing at prices ranging up to $12.50, it developed during the hearings here before the commission when the jobbers and retailers testified before that body.

It also was shown that the prices for this coal is varying from $3.75 to $4.25 a ton and the prices set by the commission were made so as to strike a happy medium. Those schools receiving the coal will pay a lower price than they would have to pay on the open market and the middleman is eliminated.

TEACHERS COMMITTEE MEETING HERE TODAY

Executive Body of Sixth District Association Attended by County Representatives

TO FIX NEXT MEETING PLACE

The executive committee of the Sixth District Educational Association was in a session here this afternoon in the court house, the purpose of the meeting being to arrange for the annual district meeting which will probably be held some time this fall.

The first annual meeting was held in this city four years ago. Supt. J. H. Scholl of this city is president of the association, and is an ex-officio member of the executive board. A. H. Hines, superintendent of the Cambridge City schools, is chairman of the board and was among the teachers that were here today.

Every county in the sixth district was represented at the meeting, and the meeting place as well as the time for the meeting, was expected to be completed at the meeting today of the board. The state teacher association will meet in Indianapolis October 21 and 22, and it is most likely that the next meeting place for this district will not be taken up until the state meeting convenes.

The annual meeting last spring was held in Shelbyville.

BRITISH STRIKE AVERTED

SILAGE OF BIG IMPORTANCE

Use of Silos Becoming More and More Common Than Ever Before—Some of Advantages.

At this season of the year, the question of silage is always an important one. There is less argument needed for silos at the present time than has been true in the past for their use is becoming more and more common. Some of the principal advantages of silos are, they require less space for roughage than any other type of storage; silage shows a good effect on stock; it provides succulent feed in summer as well as in winter; there is no waste in feeding silage, for if it is of good quality the cattle will clean it up; it is easier to handle in winter or during a busy time than shock fodder; its value as a feed has increased in proportion to other feeds so it is just as economical to use as it ever was.

BIG ESSENTIALS IN POULTRY

Breeder Should Aim for Early Maturity and High Egg Production for Best Results.

Early maturity and high egg production are the two essentials in profitable poultry keeping. If the standard of the fancier does not make for utility or is a hindrance to constructive utility breeding, then the standard is in need of revision. Whether it be in cattle, horses, sheep, swine or poultry, the score card that discriminates in the least against utility value is a hindrance to the best development of that breed. Of course there are certain distinguished breed characteristics that must be maintained, but these, as a rule, are not the fine points which are a continual hindrance to the good breeder. Fortunately, public opinion is on the side of the constructive breeder.

ALFALFA DIFFICULT TO CURE

Where Two Cuttings Are Made Grass Is Green at Each Time on Account of Moisture.

When two cuttings of alfalfa are made, the grass is very green at the time of each cutting. It is therefore difficult to cure, not only because of the large amount of water the leaves contain, but also on account of the large and succulent stems. With very good hay weather the first crop may be put in the mow in about five days after it is cut, by allowing it to lie in the swath and with the use of a hay tedder. On the other hand, rainy weather will result in a poor quality of hay.

WIRE TIGHTENER ON CORNER POST

Strands Are Seldom Stretched Tight Enough to Remain for Any Great Period.

TASK PERFORMED ANY TIME

Fence Can Be Kept Taut and Adds to Neat Appearance of Farm—Eye-bolts Are Inserted in Forms Before Concrete Is Poured.

A woven-wire fence is seldom stretched tightly enough to remain taut, and if it becomes slack, it is not only something of a reproach to the owner, but rather difficult to stretch again. An easily made tightener, attached to the corner posts, makes it possible to tighten the fence at any time.

The post forms are set up on the spot, and four eyebolts are inserted in each of the outer sides, before the concrete is poured. After the concrete has set, the forms are removed, leaving the eyes protruding about one inch. Two pieces of iron rod, or pipe, of the proper length, are obtained and the upper ends squared off, as shown. If pipe is used, the upper end should be plugged with a piece of iron rod, held in place by a rivet or pin. Holes are drilled in each piece to correspond with the fence wires. The rods, or pipes, are inserted into the eyebolts and the fence wires put through the holes and bent over. A wrench is applied to the squared end of the pipe, and the fence is drawn up as tightly as desired; one of the right-angle wrenches, or holders, shown in the insert, is then applied, to prevent the wire from unwrapping. These right-angle wrenches are made of heavy strap iron, long enough to fit over the post, as shown, and with a square hole at one end to fit over the rod. The square hole is made by heating the iron, and cutting the hole with a chisel, or a square punch. A separate wrench, or holder, is required for each tightener.—Dale R. Van Horn, Lincoln, Neb., in Popular Mechanics Magazine.

IMPROVE QUALITY OF SILAGE

Feed May Be Materially Bettered by Using Care in Taking It Out—Keep Surface Level.

The quality of the silage may be materially bettered by using care in taking it out. Don't put the fork down five or six inches deep, as though you were pitching manure, but use a fork with tines close together and skim off the top, only loosening what you need for the day's feeding. Keep the surface level and perhaps a little lower near the outer wall.

Silage cannot be handled as carelessly as ordinary roughage. The cows in eating will throw some out of the mangers, and some may be scattered along the feed alley. If this is allowed to remain there it will soon cause a bad odor.

G. H. WARD MAY NOT PRESIDE AS JUDGE

ing that Pence was ever considered by the court.

Judge Ward was on the bench for an hour, during which time the different views of the statutes were discussed. He intimated that he would sustain the petition of the defendants, which would mean that another judge will have to be appointed to try the case.

The state also filed an amended complaint, making their charges against Alyea more specific. In case that Judge Ward sustains the defendants' petition, the state's amended complaint will have to be filed before the judge that assumes jurisdiction.

It is expected that Judge Ward

will make known his decision in the matter in a few days. The case, however, will not come up for trial until after election, on a motion presented by the state and defense.

Not All Kept to The Left

American export trade is growing rapidly, according to commerce reports reaching Washington. The American manufacturer has adopted a new policy. Instead of trying to force American goods made to meet American needs upon foreign peoples, he is now studying foreign markets and endeavoring to supply existing needs.

Take the American automobile. At first complaints were received from Europe that American cars, with their left hand controls were responsible for many accidents. American manufacturers had overlooked the fact that in some countries they "keep to the left". The change was made, and last year our exports in motor vehicles reached $166,000,000.

The Department of Agriculture recently reported that American tractors, since they pull two, three and four plows, are too large for economical operation on farms of less than 230 acres. This same dictum meant that American tractors were not suited for European export trade, where the farms are small and intensive farming is the rule. How did American manufacturers meet this situation?

In an interview just published. Dr. D. H. Andreae, commercial attaché of the Netherlands, said that more than 93% of the farms of Holland are less than 125 acres, while 72% are from 2 to 25 acres. "I have recently returned from a trip to the Middle West," said Dr. Andreae. "In Indianapolis I visited one of the factories that make tillage. I am much interested in this small, one-plow tillage and as soon as I receive the catalogs and illustrated material, descriptive of this plowing machine, I will forward it to my government."

These manufacturers of tillage had studied foreign agricultural methods. They had learned the farms were small, and that the European farmer cultivates all the fence corners and close around the trees. They realized the necessity for a moderate priced machine that would do this work—that would plow, harrow, cultivate and do any work that can be done by one horse, ox or mule, and do it better and cheaper.

The same policy is being adopted

by other manufacturers. America is better equipped to compete in the world market than any other country today, and we are now in a fair way to secure our share of the business, now that American manufacturers are learning that all peoples do not keep to the right.

The Way of the World

A little child is born—a girl. It lives, and grows, and goes to school, and in time becomes a beautiful young lady who looks good to the eyes of men.

She is a good girl, pure in thought and act, but richly endowed with the fire of youth and life.

She is admired, petted, praised and courted by men—and envied by women.

If she is wise and circumspect—a Solomon in petticoats—she may go through life without blemish in the eyes of the world.

But if she makes one slip—commits even one small indiscretion—though the act may be innocent itself, her reputation is in the balance, with the chances ten to one it will be ripped to tatters.

Such is the way of the world—for women.

Another child is born—a boy.

It, too, develops into one of life and spirits, and pursues the way of most boys who travel the road to man's estate.

From boyhood to manhood there are many pitfalls for the unwary, into some of which he falls.

There is a certain charm to these pitfalls—these illicit pleasures—which induces him to continue along the forbidden road.

He makes many slips—commits many indiscretions—hits the high spots as he rushes through life.

But his reputation does not suffer—he earns another instead. He becomes a man of the world, and is considered a live wire.

Society beams, he yawns, and God frowns.

Such, also, is the way of the world—for men.

Elwood Haynes of Kokomo, leading prohibitionist of the state, has taken a sensible stand to the effect that there is no future need for the prohibition party since nation wide prohibition is in effect. And incidentally he intends to support Sen. Harding, Sen. Watson and the other republican candidates.

Fifth Cousin Roosevelt recently explained how Chairman Will Hays called the republican leaders to Washington when the president went to France the second time and decided to double-cross him. It is amazing the amount of misinformation that fellow gets in his system.

"Open Ear to World to be G. O. P. Policy," says a headline—which is some improvement over being blind and deaf both.

Current Comment

Needed to Uphold Harding

(The Muncie Press)
Senator James E. Watson, who is a candidate for re-election this year in Indiana, is one of the most widely known statesmen of the nation. He is one of the three or four outstanding figures in the United States Senate and is the equal of any of them in eloquence, honesty and ability to serve the people. In casting a ballot for Watson a Hoosier has the knowledge that he is voting for a man who is almost as well known outside his home state as within it. He is not a statesman, but a national character, and he has spread the fame of Indiana throughout the United States.

Senator Watson's war record is one of which anybody might well feel proud. He was justly known as the friend not only of the soldier but of the soldier's family and while the war was on, devoted nearly his entire time to the cause of the man at the front and in camp.

Senator Watson is a close friend of Senator Harding and is a frequent visitor at the Harding home. The latter is anxious that the Indiana senator be returned to the Senate this year and has said that it would be almost useless to elect a Republican president and not a Republican Senate. The great reforms that the Republican party expects to carry out will be held up if there be not a Republican Senate to assist the President. Even peace itself will be delayed indefinitely, and perhaps for years, if the unexpected should happen and the Democrats should gain control of the Senate, even though Harding might be elected by the greatest majority ever given a presidential candidate. It is just as important for any Indiana man calling himself a Republican to vote to return James E. Watson to the Senate as it is to cast a ballot for Harding for President.

THE PUP.

He tore the curtains yesterday,
And scratched the paper on the wall;
Her rubbers, too, have gone astray,
Ma says she left them in the hall.
He tugged the table cloth and broke
A fancy saucer and a cup;
Though Bud and I think it a joke
Ma scolds a lot about the pup.

The sofa pillows are a sight,
The rugs are looking somewhat frayed
And there's ruin, left and right,
That little Boston bull has made.
He slept on Buddy's counterpane,
Ma found him there when she woke up.
I think it needless to explain
She scolds a lot about the pup.

And yet he comes and licks her hand
And sometimes climbs into her lap
And there, Bud lets me understand,
He very often takes his nap.
And Bud and I have learned to know
She wouldn't give the rascal up.
She's really fond of him although
She scolds a lot about the pup.

HIGH COURT OPENS
AFTER LONG RECESS

Profiteering Section of Lever Act
And Farm Loan Act to Come up
This Term

IMPORTANT ANTI-TRUST SUIT

If Court Decides Lever Act Unconstitutional, All Profiteering Cases Will be Dropped

Washington, Oct. 2.—The United States Supreme Court Monday will hold its first meeting since it handed down its famous decision upholding the constitutionality of national prohibition. The court has been in recess since that decision on June 7.

At the opening of its new term, the court is scheduled to hear and decide one important anti-trust suit, and cases involving the constitutionality of the profiteering section of the Lever act and the farm loan act.

Probably the most important anti-trust action and the first case on the court docket is one against the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in which the government seeks to separate the railroad from its anthracite coal holdings. The government won a similar case against the Reading railroad. The Lehigh case is up for re-argument.

The suits involving constitutionality of the Lever law and farm loan acts are scheduled for argument beginning next Monday. All profiteering cases brought by the Department of Justice have been based on the section of the Lever law in dispute. If the court decides this section unconstitutional, all profiteering cases now on will be dropped and no other will be started. If the court upholds the law, the government can immediately file more cases in districts where unfavorable decisions by lower courts have temporarily halted proceedings under the act.

The Farm Loan case comes up from Kansas, where lower courts held the act unconstitutional, practically tying up all operations of the Farm Loan Board. Future operations hang on the decision by the supreme court.

Among the hundreds of other cases before the court is one involving valuable oil lands in dispute between Oklahoma and Texas and another which will determine whether West Virginia can pass a law to stop piping of its natural gas to Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The court Monday may break one of the time honored customs of the American government by not going to the White House. Since the early days of the government this has been the first act of the court at the beginning of each new term. The illness of President Wilson may prevent it this year.

No Reduction In Dodge Cars

Official confirmation of press dispatches from Detroit, announcing, that there would be no reduction in the price of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, has been received by Joe Clark the Dodge Brothers dealer in this city. A telegram from C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager to the local dealer, reads:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers motor cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue." "Dodge Brothers announcement was no surprise to us," said Mr. Clark. In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers business principles. At no time have they ever demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts."

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory, has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present prices. In marketing their Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

REAL FOOTBALL OPENING TODAY

Every College Eleven in State Gets Into Action; Interest Centering on Bloomington

INDIANA MEETS IOWA TEAM

Also Plenty of Interest in Purdue-
DePauw Battle—Wabash Meets
Transylvania

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—While the 1920 football season was officially opened by the Indiana-Franklin game at Bloomington last Saturday, the real opening of the gridiron in the state was pulled off today.

Every college football team in the state will be in action. Some of the games are of unusual importance, having a direct bearing on not only the state championship but on the western conference championship.

The game with Franklin gave the first information to the football fans of the strength of Coach Stiehlm's eleven.

Indiana meets Iowa at Bloomington, Iowa is one of the big teams of the conference and should Coach Stiehlm's team win it would put Indiana high among the conference schools.

There is plenty of interest in the DePauw and Purdue battle at Lafayette. Last year Purdue defeated Coach Buss' Tigers 24 to 0. That was in a late season game. This year DePauw meets the Boilermakers in an early season game and Purdue is a slow starter early in the year and Coach "Butch" Scanlon does not as a rule try to get his team going fast until later in the season.

There is a new factor in Hoosier football this year. Valparaiso university made such a good record last season that it has been given a place on the schedule of Harvard—Notre Dame—DePauw and Morningside. Valparaiso opens its season today with Lake Forest.

Coach Rockne's Notre Dame team will start its schedule by playing Kalamazoo at Notre Dame. The Catholics defeated the Kalamazoo team by a 14 to 0 score in the opening game last year.

Coach Pete Vaughn will see his team under fire for the first time. Coach Vaughn is directing Wabash college this year and the "Little Giants" play Transylvania at Crawfordsville. Rose Poly meets St. Louis University at St. Louis this week.

There is unusual interest in the Butler-Whittenburg game at Indianapolis. Butler has a far better team than it has had in some years. Whittenburg is the champion of the Ohio conference.

Earlham and Hanover colleges play. The Quakers were showing wonderful improvement at the close of the year last season.

ARLINGTON DEFEATS CARTHAGE, 21 TO 7

Wins on Home Grounds Friday and Will Help Pry Lid Off
Here Next Week

SECONDS ARE ALSO VICTORS

Arlington high school, which will open the basketball season here next Friday evening at the Graham Annex gymnasium, won from Carthage Friday afternoon at Arlington, 21 to 7. The first half ended 4 to 4. Arlington played its first game a week ago last night, defeating Center, 26 to 13.

Last night's defeat was the first for Carthage, the Ripley township lads having won the opener a week ago. The Carthage seconds were defeated by the Arlington second team in a curtain raiser last night, 7 to 5. The games were played outdoors and the cold interfered.

Arlington's win over Carthage indicates that the team is strong this year and that Rushville will have no snap in the first game of the season. It has been customary for Arlington to play the first game of the fall in Rushville.

The summary:
Arlington (21) Carthage (7)
Rigsbee ..... F. Ruby, Black
A. Birt ..... F. J. Moore
D. Nelson ..... C. Stewart, H'cote
Macy ..... G. Henley
Marshall ..... G. Herkless
Field goals—Rigsbee 1, Birt 3,
Nelson 4, Macy 1, Ruby 1, Moore 2;
foul goals—Rigsbee 3, J. Moore 1.

DODGERS PROVED CONSISTENT TEAM

Brooklyn Presented a Smooth-Working Business-Like Machine That Played Ball all The Time

NO SINGLE STAR IN THE BUNCH

Another Source of Strength Was its Second Line of Defense—Substitutes
Always Ready

The Dodgers won the National League pennant because they were guilty on the following counts.

The best pitching staff and the best balanced club in the elder circuit, and one of the best managers in base ball.

Without a single star in the lineup, and generally referred to as "the most colorless team in the big leagues", Brooklyn presented a smooth-working, business-like machine that played consistently from the first game to the last. It went through the season more like a steam roller than a battering ram.

Another source of strength was its second line of defense. Whenever a player was disabled there was a substitute ready to step into his shoes and perform with the same efficiency as the regular.

After winning the National League championship in 1916—and losing the world series to the Red Sox, four games to one—the Dodgers slumped to seventh place in 1917. Manager Wilbert Robinson at once started rebuilding his club, developing youngsters and acquiring cast-offs from his rivals. Brooklyn finished fifth in 1918 and 1919. This year they were in the fight from the opening game.

Robinson has had a good pitcher for every day in the week, including Sunday. Up to the third week in September, his staff was rated this way:

Clarence Mitchell, won 5, lost 2, percentage .714; Burleigh Grimes, won 21, lost 10, percentage .77; Jeff Pfeffer, won 15, lost 9, percentage .625; Rube Marquard, won 9, lost 7, percentage .563; Al Mamaux, won 10, lost 8, percentage .556;

Sherrod Smith, won 10, lost 8, percentage .556; Leon Cadore, won 14, lost 13, percentage .519.

At that time the club rated second in batting to the Cardinals, with an average of .279.

Zach Wheat, who has won the league championship in batting in past seasons, was hitting .326; Grimes, .317; Ed Konetchy, .321; Hi Myers, .362; Bill Lamar, .297; Jimmy Johnston, .294; Ernie Krueger, .289; Otto Miller, .286; Pete Kilduff, .277; Tommy Griffiths, .264; Bernie Neis, .260; Ivy Olson, .257; Pfeffer, .257; Ray Schmandt, .255; Rowdy Elliott, .245; Mitchell, .243; Smith, .243; Cadore, .226; Marquard, .164; McCabe, .162; Mamaux, .158, and Ward, .155.

Larry Sutton, the 63-year-old scout of the club, perhaps best explained the Dodgers' victory when he declared that "Uncle Robbie" loved 'em into a pennant." According to Sutton, there was never a hint of dissension on the club, a thing that probably has lost more championships than any other factor.

The players never considered the possibility of finishing anywhere but first", Sutton said. "Robinson had them believing they were invincible, and they pretty nearly were. They have gone out and won scores of games this year that appeared to be hopelessly lost. Never has there been a more magnificent esprit de corps in the National League."

Big Industrial Growth.

Products of industrial plants in Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, increased more than $100,000,000 in value in three years, and in 1918 aggregated almost a quarter of a billion dollars, according to a summary of reports issued by the statistical bureau of the Pennsylvania department of internal affairs. The greatest advance was in the value of the metal products. The county engaging heavily in the manufacture of munitions during the war and showing a value of $168,000,000 in metals produced or fabricated in 1918. One of the remarkable features of the county's industrial development is the growth of the chocolate and candy industry, with products valued at $20,000,000 in 1918, a huge gain in three years. The CaloriC is the original pipeless furnace triple-easing patent. It is not a pipe furnace with the pipes left off, but designed and built from the ground up for efficient pipeless heating. Over 100,000 CaloriCs in use, in buildings of every type in every State in the Union.

The CaloriC is the most practical heating system to install in new or old homes, because it is simplest, most efficient, economical and healthful. No plumbing or alterations. No pipes to freeze. Usually installed in one day. Burns any fuel.

We sell the CaloriC because we know it is a proven success—and we can back the manufacturer's money-back guarantee with our own personal guarantee that you'll be completely satisfied.

TOGETHER

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main Street Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Scot Hosier Monday night.

The Inter Nos club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. A. B. Gates near Homer Thursday afternoon. The hours were spent in a social way. Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served. Several members and one visitor were present.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Joy Ball Selby and James H. Hoy, both of Lebanon, Ind., which took place there yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy have left on a wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Lebanon, where the bridegroom is employed. The bride is the grand daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Ball of this city and has many friends living here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rucker of Arlington entertained with a prettily appointed family dinner party yesterday. Fall flowers formed the centerpiece for the table and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, Mrs. Warren Nelson, Bert Jordan and Clyde Rucker, and Mrs. C. H. Reeves, Miss Lena Reeve and Miss Virginia Jordan, all of Flemingsburg, Ky.

Mrs. Curtis Hester entertained fifteen guests last evening at her home in North Main street honoring Miss Ruth Gronier, the visiting nurse who is to become the bride of Hubert Ryder, of North Carolina, this month. The party was in the form of a surprise miscellaneous supper for the bride-to-be. Games and a marshmallow toast were the features of the evening. Miss Gronier leaves Tuesday for North Carolina.

Mrs. Rachel Bowen delightfully entertained the members of the O. N. T. club yesterday afternoon at her home in North Main street. Twelve members were present for the meeting and the following guests: Mrs. Ab Denning, Mrs. Carl Behr, Mrs. J. Hooker Wilson, and the Misses Margaret and Minnie Murphy and Frances Bowen. A musical program was given, followed by a social hour, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Amusements

"Alias Miss Dodd," Mystic

Those who write things in their diaries that no one else must read will probably run home and burn them after seeing Edith Roberts in "Alias Miss Dodd," her latest photoplay, which is shown at the Mystic Theatre today.

In this story Thomas Dodd, an old man whose life has always been most exemplary, depicts himself as a heartless love pirate and his nephew, Kent, as a "chip of the old block." He never dreamed that anyone else would ever read his memoirs. But they came into the hands of Jeanne, a heroically inclined little working girl, and she determines to make the two men atone for their sins and marry the women they have apparently wronged.

The whole thing is greatly complicated when Jeanne falls in love with Kent, herself. But she is determined to make them both "do the right thing" and she goes on with her plans. The climax comes when Jeanne learns of the terrible blindness she has made.

Jewels Adorn Women's Togs

"By MARJORIE"

(Written for United Press)

New York Oct. 2.—This is almost a bells on her fingers rings on her toes year in feminine fashion. Real jewelry and gilded baubles glitter over hats, suits, gowns, and even shoes.

The strange vegetation of "silver bells and cockle shells" that grew in the garden of Mistress Mary of Mother Goose fame, have been transplanted to the garden of fashion. This is literally true for bands of tiny frosted silver bells drip from hat brims, and even cockle shells, snail shells and oyster shells have been pressed into the sartorial service and when painted, gilded, silvered, or shellaced adorn some nifty chapeau. The larger shells are used in lieu of a corsage flower. This, a Fifth Avenue house shows an olive green duvety gown untrimmed save for the large pale green clam shell that was fastened with chenille to match to the belt.

Spangles of jet, iridescent beads, colored beads of every hue, and great wooden beads are found everywhere on gowns and hats and prove that this is a jewelry year. Little appliques made of jet or coral chips are a novel trimming of the year.

So much for the mock jewelry realm, but when we look at the price-dazzling offerings of big houses, it is equally evident that jewelry is holding its own this year, and has a style all its own. This style is of the Orient. It is the garish gems that are most in demand and chains are wrought into strange filigree full of weird and grotesque figures.

Jade leads in popularity this year as it did last. The stone comes in the blue shades largely, although some ornaments made from the apple green shade are shown. Necklaces, rings, bracelets, handbag tops, umbrella-handles, vanity cases, and pins show jade used in a wide range of patterns. The combining metal, however, is always silver, and the sustaining metal achieves the bizarre in effect. Thus, a necklace is shown with the silver chain very coarse-linked about the throat, but widening into a finely filigreed pattern. This pattern is full of little Eastern figures, such as the scarab, lotus flower, date palm, and camel. Half a dozen pieces of jade in irregular shapes and sizes were scattered about the figures.

Conventional settings are almost unknown in rings, and the setting is generally about some rough stone rather than a polished gem. Bits of jade, turquoise matrixes, emeralds, and unpolished pearls are favorites. The ring band is generally of silver or platinum, widening into a large patten about the stone. The lotus flower is a favorite design in ring settings.

Beautiful bead chains are shown in a garish mixture of colors that blend beautifully with the autumn tints of suits and gowns. This is the Oriental not again. Yellows, reds, green, and blues are found in one ornament. The effect is given by topazes, emeralds, garnets, and sapphires, set within a silver chain.

Of course, such jewelry staples as pearl necklaces, diamond rings, and rings and necklaces studded with opals or turquoises are shown, but they present few variations from former years. Engagement rings still chiefly supply the platinum, flat setting, although the gold ring with Tiffany setting is shown. Society's high moguls are wearing the softer gems, such as pearls and turquoises for evening wear rather than the glittering effects of diamond or emerald.

the most momentous decision he had ever arrived at. So, armed with a large, luxurious bunch of orchids, a Pomeranian pup, he sallied forth.

When he arrived at the house, he had forgotten what he wanted to say, and after looking at Grace's father he forgot what he had come for.

Then Melville felt blue and went in search of adventure. He found it in the shape of a nice bump on his head, caused by violent contact with an empty bottle in the hands of an irate gangster. Then Melville decided life was too strenuous, anyway, and he would put an end to his share of it. When he found all of his friends not only ready but eager to help him, he changed his mind; he was a very clean-minded chap; he changed it every few minutes. Then the excitement comes thick and fast. Owen Moore will be seen as Melville Carruthers in his latest comedy, "The Poor Simp," at the Princess theater today.

WOMEN CAN'T VOTE IN TWO DISTRICTS

In South Negro Women Not Allowed to And in District of Columbia All Are Disfranchised

NEGRO MAN DISFRANCHISED

Since End of Reconstruction Days Whites Have Politically Dominated The South

Washington, Oct. 1.—Through the woman suffrage amendment is now part of the Constitution, and women of the Republic are on a political equality with men, there are two sections of the country where women will not exercise the privileges guaranteed under the Nineteenth Amendment.

In the Southern States the negro women will not be allowed to vote, no more so than the negro man. In the District of Columbia, the National Capital, which is completely disfranchised, neither men nor women can vote, even for municipal officials.

It is a fact taken for granted in the sixteen Southern States that negro women, despite ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment, cannot use the newly won ballot. In the South the negro man is not allowed to vote—a fact well known to every Southerner and to all Northern people who are conversant with political conditions throughout the country.

Since the end of reconstruction days the whites have politically dominated the sixteen Southern States. The corner stone of this domination has been disfranchisement of the negro. Were this not so and the negro allowed to vote on an equality with the whites in this section, there would be no more "Solid South." Instead most of the Southern States would be Republican, for the negro, when he does vote, is always found in the Republican column. It could not be otherwise as it was the Republican Party, under the immortal Lincoln, that abolished slavery. The Democratic Party has disfranchised the negro in the South.

During the campaign to pass the Nineteenth Amendment through Congress, Southern Senators and Representatives served notice on suffrage advocates that if the Amendment was ratified the South proposed to nullify it as far as the negro women were concerned.

In the final lineup when the Nineteenth Amendment was passed by Congress, it was the Southern Senators and Representatives who voted against it to the last roll call.

A Democratic Congress, under leadership of President Wilson, refused to pass the Amendment. It was not until the Republicans gained control of House and Senate that the Amendment was passed.

Twenty-nine Republican states voted to ratify the Nineteenth Amendment, and only seven Democratic states refused to ratify. The Republicans can well claim the credit for ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment. Practically all the opposition to women suffrage came from the Bourbon South.

In the South the negro is now disfranchised by various devices which effectively destroy his political rights as an American citizen under the Constitution. The "literacy test," property qualifications,

SEASON FOR MITES AT HAND

If Hens Are Dropping Off in Egg Production It Would Be Good Plan to Look for Pests.

The mite season is now at its height, and if one's hens are dropping off in production faster than they really should and if the young stock are not growing as well as they ought to, it would be well to carefully inspect their sleeping quarters for red mites. The red mites hide during the daytime in the cracks and crevices under the roosts, or at either end where they are held up; they may also be found in the nests or in the cracks on the sides of the building. To eliminate, spray or paint with kerosene and crude carbolic acid, or, better still, use corbolineum.

INBREEDING IS NOT FAVORED

Experiments in Hands of Amateur Are Usually Expensive—Many Animals Discarded.

Inbreeding experiments are generally expensive, especially in the hands of the amateur, for as a result of inbreeding, the percentage of animals which must be discarded is inevitably increased enormously. However, the animals which stand the test of inbreeding are worth infinitely more than animals of the same quality which have been produced by ordinary breeding. It is by inbreeding or by that dilute form of inbreeding known as linebreeding that the greatest progress is made by our best breeders.

"AMERICA FIRST DAY", OCT. 18TH

Big Celebration is Planned on That Day at Marion When Two Candidates Will Speak

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED

Harding And Coolidge Will Address Throng, Laying Stress on all

First Voters

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—The biggest political and patriotic event in American history is to be staged at Marion, Ohio, on Monday October 18, when Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, and Governor Calvin Coolidge of Mass., Republican nominee for Vice-president, will speak from Senator Harding's front porch on America First day.

In this great wind up of the now famous front porch campaign Indiana will be asked to take a particularly important and active part by the Republican National committee. Mr. John L. Moorman of Knox, Indiana, has been assigned the task of organizing Indiana for this greatest of all drives and he confidently expects that this state alone will send from 25,000 to 40,000 people to Marion on October 18.

Mr. Moorman was in Indianapolis Wednesday perfecting plans for the expedition and has obtained the unqualified and enthusiastic approval for the project from State Chairman E. M. Wasmuth and from the entire membership of the state central committee.

Those who go to Marion will travel by automobiles and the great caravan will be the most spectacular single feature ever staged for a political or any other similar purposes in this country. Ohio is to be represented by thousands and the plans have also been extended to Southern Michigan and Western Pennsylvania. Other states will send smaller delegations by special train or special cars and already assurances have been received from several western states that they will be well represented.

The work of securing recruits for the great pilgrimage in Indiana is to be delegated to the county Republican committee and already reports indicate unusual interest.

Those desiring to go are requested to report at once to their county chairman as this will save much of the work of canvassing. Local committees also are to be named in each district to assist in seeing that Indiana is represented by a record breaking crowd.

In addition to being America First Day, October 18 at Marion is to be First Voters Day as well, and Senators Harding and Governor Coolidge

This was the agreement reached by the coal mine operator and Jesse Eschbach in the conference at Terre Haute this week.

The first list was sent to Terre Haute. The conference was attended by representatives of the operators and assembled in the hotel on the request of Eschbach.

Immediate action will be taken in the list sent out yesterday by Eschbach to relieve the 6 schools reported on the verge of closing. Among these were the schools at Crawfordsville and Greenfield and several utilities.

SHOWS EVIL OF TREATY ITSELF

Senator Moses, in Address Here Today, Says it is Ground Enough For United States to Keep Out

WORSE THAN THE LEAGUE

Sees Sentiment Against Covenant in Maine Vote and Primary Results in His Own State

Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire, who addressed a republican meeting in the court room on the third floor of the court house this afternoon, devoted his remarks entirely to the Versailles treaty of peace, discussing it at an entirely new angle. He took up the treaty of peace and showed that it in itself, aside from the league of nations, was sufficient ground for the United States keeping out of the league.

"There has been lots of talking about the league covenant," he declared, "which comprises only 26 out of the 440 articles of the treaty, to the neglect of the other 414.

"The obligations and implications in these 414 articles are so much worse than the covenant that no man can read them without being horrified at that uncanny method by which the European diplomats took advantage of President Wilson's ignorance and tied the United States up in all the rotten alliances ever perpetrated in Europe."

The Arlington band played several selections on the court house lawn before the meeting and a local glee club of eight voices sang several campaign songs following Senator Moses' address.

Mrs. Theodore Whetmore of Minneapolis, who has been making an automobile tour of the state, speaking at small towns, arrived shortly before three o'clock and began talking shortly after three o'clock. The court room was packed and jammed with people.

Senator Moses is a "bitter-ended" and "irreconcilable" and every other term, which has been applied to those senators who are opposed to the treaty in any form.

He is a close personal friend of Senator Borah and said he did not believe the report that Senator Borah would retire from the campaign. Senator Moses discussed the attitude of the Idaho senator informally before going to the court house to speak. He declared that Senator Borah had always been a "free lance" and that none of his speaking dates had ever been made by the republican national committee.

"If the people were in favor of a league of nations," Senator Moses said, "I would have been swamped in the primary in my state. I made no apologies for my position in my campaign for renomination. I was opposed by a pro-league and an ardent advocate of woman suffrage. I had always opposed woman suffrage. But I defeated my opponent two to one, purely on the strength of my position in regard to the league. Soon after that came the 65,000 republican majority in Maine. Regardless of what you may be told the democrats made the league the sole issue of the Maine campaign, to the utter disregard to state issues."

In his speech this afternoon, Senator Moses pointed out that President Wilson fulfilled his threat to tie up the treaty and the league, and that he immediately became a "bitter-ended." He gave the reasons for his position and showed what the treaty lays upon the United States.

"In reply to the democrats who want to know what we would do when we scrapped the league," the speaker said, "I would establish a new entente without undertaking to put the world in a straight jacket or reduce the obligations of every nation to the frozen form of a treaty from which they can not escape for fifty-one years, as in the case of the Versailles treaty."

G. O. P. SPECIAL TO VISIT RUSHVILLE

Campaign Novelty Looks Like Steam Engine Off The Track But Runs Like an Automobile.

IS COMING HERE WEDNESDAY

The "G. O. P. Special," which looks like a steam engine which has just jumped the track but runs along smoothly like an automobile, will visit Rushville some time next Wednesday afternoon or evening. A picture of the special appeared on the front page of the Indianapolis Star this morning. It is declared to be the best novelty produced this campaign.

The special will be in charge of Col. Hiram Bearss, of Peru, Ind., who won fame as a soldier during a long and spectacular career with the "First Fight" Marines. In addition to the colonel there will be one or two speakers aboard, a quartet of singers, and a complete motion picture outfit equipped to show films in rural communities.

From its rear platform speeches will be made and campaign literature distributed. The "Special" leaves Indianapolis next Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock and is scheduled to visit Shelbyville and Greensburg before coming to Rushville, indicating that it will be here some time late in the afternoon.

J. Sandy Young of Indianapolis, Secretary of the Veteran's Republican Club, and John W. McCrum of Huntington, Ind., were here today advertising the coming of the locomotive, and asserted that the public will be surprised. They stated that the delegation will leave Greensburg at 2:30 and will stop in Milroy for a while, and will arrive here about four o'clock.

VISITING NURSE RESIGNS PLACE

Miss Ruth Gronier Will Remain Until Successor is Named, Woman's Council Reports

ANNUAL MEETING IS HELD

Reports Shows Balance Oct. 1 of $528.84—Auto Enables Nurse To Make More Visits

The Woman's Council completed the fiscal year October first and in a report of its financial condition shows that a wonderful year has just closed. The report of the things accomplished reveals many interesting facts as to the work of Miss Ruth Gronier, visiting nurse during the year from October 1, 1919, to the present time.

One of the most regrettable facts which came before the meeting was the resignation of Miss Gronier, who will leave as soon as her vacancy is filled. Miss Gronier will be married on October 31 to Herbert Sterling Ryder of Littleton, N. C., and they will reside in that city.

The final meeting of the year for the Woman's Council was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. M. Green, and was more in the form of a party, with an unusually large attendance. The different reports were read at this time.

The report of Miss Anna Bohannon, treasurer, showed that the Council has a surplus of $528.84 to begin the new year with, and is larger than the surplus at the beginning of last year, when there was $442.95 on hand.

The visiting nurse has had the use of an automobile for seven months, which has enabled her to make more visits and cover the territory more thoroughly than before. The machine was donated to the Woman's Council for that purpose and was purchased with a fund raised by the Rotary Club among the business men of Rushville. A general vote of thanks was made in their yearly report for the car.

The reports month by month of the visiting nurse are as follows, and will give the public a good idea of the amount of work which the visiting nurse has before her each month:

October, 1919, 240 visits, 30 patients, 58 Metropolitan visits, 7 fumigations, no deaths.

November, 1919, 201 visits, 33 patients, 20 Metropolitan visits, 5 fumigations, no deaths.

December, 1919, 183 visits, 38 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 3 fumigations, 2 deaths.

January, 1920, 173 visits, 53 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 8 fumigations, no deaths.

February, 195 visits, 57 patients, 11 Metropolitan visits, 5 fumigations, 1 death.

March, 218 visits, 56 patients, 47 Metropolitan visits, 6 fumigations, 1 death.

April, 244 visits, 63 patients, 15 Metropolitan visits, three fumigations, 1 death.

May, 255 visits, 41 patients, 70 Metropolitan visits, four fumigations, 1 death.

June, 232 visits, 43 patients, 16 Metropolitan visits, two fumigations, 1 death.

July, 98 visits, 25 patients, 34 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 2 deaths.

August, 78 visits, 19 patients, 20 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 1 death.

September, 138 visits, 35 patients, 45 Metropolitan visits, 1 fumigation, 3 deaths.

The total for the year is as follows: Visits, 2355; patients, 486; Metropolitan visits, 368; fumigations, 46; deaths, 14.

The Metropolitan visits referred to above are paid for at the rate of $30 each by the Metropolitan Insurance Company, as the visiting nurse has charge of their sick.

Miss Gronier's report showed that 1574 physical examinations had been conducted in the public schools in this city last semester and so far this term.

The Woman's Council has an application for the visiting nurse position.

G. H. WARD MAY NOT PRESIDE AS JUDGE

Defense in Alyea Conspiracy Case Objects to Method by Which He Was Selected

SECRET DRAWING OBJECTION

Winchester Attorney Intimates He Will Sustain Petition and Not Assume Jurisdiction

Judge George H. Ward of Winchester, who came here yesterday to set the date for the trial of the state against Gregg Alyea, may not assume jurisdiction of the case, on account of a petition offered by the attorneys for Alyea, who requested that he not try the case.

The petition offered by the defendant caused quite a wrangle in circuit court, yesterday afternoon late, as Judge Ward was delayed in reaching here, and when the defendant insisted that his appointment was unlawful, a series of arguments prevailed.

Judge Ward was appointed by Gov. Goodrich to try the case, after Judge Sparks had certified the conditions to the executive.

The defendant in objecting to Judge Ward, set out in their complaint that the striking off of the five judges was not legally done, and that it was done secretly. When Alyea requested a change of judge, it was granted and five able jurists were named by Judge Sparks.

The state was ordered to strike off two of these names in writing, and the defense was granted the same privilege, and the remaining judge was to be the one to hear the case.

It so happened that of the five judges, the state struck off the names of Mr. Thompson and Willis Ellis of Anderson. The defense struck off the names of Mr. Thompson and William A. Bond of Richmond.

The secret drawing left two judges that were qualified instead of one, as the state and defense each struck off Mr. Thompson. The two left were Jere West of Crawfordsville and Luther Pence of Anderson.

The court record showed that Judge West was appointed, but was unable to try the case, and "the court being unable to select a capable jurist or attorney in the state of good standing, the facts herein are certified to the governor."

The defense brought out a point in a case of this kind, on which there is no ruling made by the higher courts.

Judge Ward while on the bench yesterday stated that he was not fully decided what to do about the petition of the defendant asking that his appointment be set aside, but stated that the court had previously erred on at least three points:

that in a criminal case, the defendant should be given a fair trial, and that nothing should be done secretly, but that the striking off of the names should be done in open court; that where two judges remained unchallenged that each of them should be asked separately by the court to assume jurisdiction, and that the Governor should not be asked until each of the remaining judges had refused to take the case.

For a third citation of the court's error, he called attention to the fact that the record was not clearly and plainly written on the entry docket. Donald L. Smith, assistant prosecutor, stated that Judge Pence told him that Judge Pence of Anderson had also refused to try the case, but the record did not show in writing.

NO EVIDENCE OF PLOT FOUND

New York District Attorney Exonerates Brooklyn Club

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 2.—Attempts have been made to bribe the players of the Brooklyn base ball club to throw the 1920 world series to the Cleveland team, District Attorney Lewis declared today at the conclusion of his investigation.

Lewis in a long statement reviewing the history of his probe said "my investigation has not discovered a suspicion that an attempt had been made to fix the coming world series next week. As the result of my investigation I would consider it very dangerous for gamblers to try to fix the 1920 world's series."

EVIDENCE IN THREE DIVORCE CASES HEARD

Mildred Preston is Granted Decree of Separation From John Preston on Payment of Costs.

OTHERS UNDER ADVISEMENT

The evidence in three divorce cases was heard this morning in circuit court, and one divorce was granted to the plaintiff. Two of three cases involved colored people of Carthage.

Mildred Preston was granted a divorce from John Preston, upon payment of the costs, and she was enjoined from marrying for a period of two years. The evidence was also heard in the case of George T. Newsom against Kitty Ann Newsom, colored people of Carthage.

Most of the morning was taken up with the divorce case of Quincy Buckner against Mary Buckner, also colored people from Carthage. Ten of the fifteen witnesses were used, and the plaintiff based his actions on the conduct of his wife and a man named Elwood Watkins. Mrs. Buckner was represented in court by Robert Lee Brokenburr, a colored attorney of Indianapolis, and John A. Tiltworth represented Mr. Buckner. The case was taken under advisement.

ORANGE TOWNSHIP MAN KILLED IN OHIO

BODY REACH ST. PAUL TODAY

Walter Douthitt, former resident of Orange township, was killed yesterday at Cloverdale, O., when a boiler exploded in the factory where he was working. Douthitt and his family left Orange township last spring, and he leaves a wife and two children.

The remains were brought to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Minnie Reddenbaugh, in St. Paul this morning, and funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Moscow Christian church with burial in the cemetery nearby.

The deceased was 27 years old, and besides the relatives mentioned above, he is survived by a mother, one sister and three brothers who live in the vicinity of Moscow. A series of tragic deaths has prevailed in the family, as a sister of the deceased was burned to death recently and a brother was kicked by a mule a few years ago and died almost instantly at his home near Moscow.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The 1920 census of the United States will be approximately 105,750,000 if rate of increase shown in the count thus far is sustained. With the count nearly complete, the population of 1920 shows a 15 percent increase over 1910, when the number of persons in the United States totaled 91,972,266.

COMMISSION SETS FIRST COAL PRICE

State Body Orders Operators to Ship 36 Cars of Fuel at $4 A Ton From Mines

WILL RELIEVE A SHORTAGE

Shipment to Fill Agreement to Provide Coal for Utilities and Schools Running Short

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—The Indiana coal and food commission fixed the first coal prices today.

It ordered the American Mining Company of Brazil and Knox county coal operators to sell 36 cars of coal they have on hand to the Indiana utilities and schools, suffering from the lack of fuel at $4.00 a ton from the mouth of the mine, Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the commission, announced today.

This is in accordance with an agreement reached between the operators and the commission at Terre Haute, by which the operators agreed to furnish fuel to the utilities and schools which Eschbach notified them were in need of the fuel through written lists he sends out each week.

The coal for which the price was fixed will not be sent out in bulk but will be consigned only to the utilities and schools that are strictly in need of fuel.

The coal is the same grade that has been retailing at prices ranging up to $12.50, it developed during the hearings here before the commission when the jobbers and retailers testified before that body.

It also was shown that the prices for this coal is varying from $3.75 to $4.25 a ton and the prices set by the commission were made so as to strike a happy medium. Those schools receiving the coal will pay a lower price than they would have to pay on the open market and the middleman is eliminated.

TEACHERS COMMITTEE MEETING HERE TODAY

Executive Body of Sixth District Association Attended by County Representatives

TO FIX NEXT MEETING PLACE

The executive committee of the Sixth District Educational Association was in a session here this afternoon in the court house, the purpose of the meeting being to arrange for the annual district meeting which will probably be held some time this fall.

The first annual meeting was held in this city four years ago. Supt. J. H. Scholl of this city is president of the association, and is an ex-officio member of the executive board. A. H. Hines, superintendent of the Cambridge City schools, is chairman of the board and was among the teachers that were here today.

Every county in the sixth district was represented at the meeting, and the meeting place as well as the time for the meeting, was expected to be completed at the meeting today of the board. The state teacher association will meet in Indianapolis October 21 and 22, and it is most likely that the next meeting place for this district will not be taken up until the state meeting convenes.

The annual meeting last spring was held in Shelbyville.

BRITISH STRIKE AVERTED

London, Oct. 2.—The Exchange Telegraph company announced today they understood the British coal strike had been averted. Another vote was taken on the working conditions proposals which have been made by the government, according to the report. The Exchange said they understood the strike had been postponed another week.

SILAGE OF BIG IMPORTANCE

Use of Silos Becoming More and More Common Than Ever Before—Some of Advantages.

At this season of the year, the question of silage is always an important one. There is less argument needed for silos at the present time than has been true in the past for their use is becoming more and more common. Some of the principal advantages of silos are, they require less space for roughage than any other type of storage; silage shows a good effect on stock; it provides succulent feed in summer as well as in winter; there is no waste in feeding silage, for if it is of good quality the cattle will clean it up; it is easier to handle in winter or during a busy time than shock fodder; its value as a feed has increased in proportion to other feeds so it is just as economical to use as it ever was.

BIG ESSENTIALS IN POULTRY

Breeder Should Aim for Early Maturity and High Egg Production for Best Results.

Early maturity and high egg production are the two essentials in profitable poultry keeping. If the standard of the fancier does not make for utility or is a hindrance to constructive utility breeding, then the standard is in need of revision. Whether it be in cattle, horses, sheep, swine or poultry, the score card that discriminates in the least against utility value is a hindrance to the best development of that breed. Of course there are certain distinguished breed characteristics that must be maintained, but these, as a rule, are not the fine points which are a continual hindrance to the good breeder. Fortunately, public opinion is on the side of the constructive breeder.

ALFALFA DIFFICULT TO CURE

Where Two Cuttings Are Made Grass Is Green at Each Time on Account of Moisture.

When two cuttings of alfalfa are made, the grass is very green at the time of each cutting. It is therefore difficult to cure, not only because of the large amount of water the leaves contain, but also on account of the large and succulent stems. With very good hay weather the first crop may be put in the mow in about five days after it is cut, by allowing it to lie in the swath and with the use of a hay tedder. On the other hand, rainy weather will result in a poor quality of hay.

WIRE TIGHTENER ON CORNER POST

Strands Are Seldom Stretched Tight Enough to Remain for Any Great Period.

TASK PERFORMED ANY TIME

Fence Can Be Kept Taut and Adds to Neat Appearance of Farm—Eye-bolts Are Inserted in Forms Before Concrete Is Poured.

A woven-wire fence is seldom stretched tightly enough to remain taut, and if it becomes slack, it is not only something of a reproach to the owner, but rather difficult to stretch again. An easily made tightener, attached to the corner posts, makes it possible to tighten the fence at any time.

The post forms are set up on the spot, and four eyebolts are inserted in each of the outer sides, before the concrete is poured. After the concrete has set, the forms are removed, leaving the eyes protruding about one inch. Two pieces of iron rod, or pipe, of the proper length, are obtained and the upper ends squared off, as shown. If pipe is used, the upper end should be plugged with a piece of iron rod, held in place by a rivet or pin. Holes are drilled in each piece to correspond with the fence wires. The rods, or pipes, are inserted into the eyebolts and the fence wires put through the holes and bent over. A wrench is applied to the squared end of the pipe, and the fence is drawn up as tightly as desired; one of the right-angle wrenches, or holders, shown in the insert, is then applied, to prevent the wire from unwrapping. These right-angle wrenches are made of heavy strap iron, long enough to fit over the post, as shown, and with a square hole at one end to fit over the rod. The square hole is made, by heating the iron, and cutting the hole with a chisel, or a square punch. A separate wrench, or holder, is required for each tightener. Dale R. Van Horn, Lincoln, Neb., in Popular Mechanics Magazine.

IMPROVE QUALITY OF SILAGE

Feed May Be Materially Bettered by Using Care in Taking It Out—Keep Surface Level.

The quality of the silage may be materially bettered by using care in taking it out. Don't put the fork down five or six inches deep, as though you were pitching manure, but use a fork with tines close together and skim off the top, only loosening what you need for the day's feeding. Keep the surface level and perhaps a little lower near the outer wall.

Silage cannot be handled as carelessly as ordinary roughage. The cows in eating will throw some out of the mangers, and some may be scattered along the feed alley. If this is allowed to remain there it will soon cause a bad odor.

G. H. WARD MAY NOT PRESIDE AS JUDGE

ing that Pence was ever considered by the court.

Judge Ward was on the bench for an hour, during which time the different views of the statutes were discussed. He intimated that he would sustain the petition of the defendants, which would mean that another judge will have to be appointed to try the case.

The state also filed an amended complaint, making their charges against Alvey more specific. In case that Judge Ward sustains the defendants' petition, the state's amended complaint will have to be filed before the judge that assumes jurisdiction.

It is expected that Judge Ward

will make known his decision in the matter in a few days. The case, however, will not come up for trial until after election, on a motion presented by the state and defense.

Not All Kept to the Left

American export trade is growing rapidly, according to commerce reports reaching Washington. The American manufacturer has adopted a new policy. Instead of trying to force American goods made to meet American needs upon foreign peoples, he is now studying foreign markets and endeavoring to supply existing needs.

Take the American automobile. At first complaints were received from Europe that American cars, with their left hand controls were responsible for many accidents. American manufacturers had overlooked the fact that in some countries they "keep to the left." The change was made, and last year our exports in motor vehicles reached $166,000,000.

The Department of Agriculture recently reported that American tractors, since they pull two, three and four plows, are too large for economical operation on farms of less than 230 acres. This same dictum meant that American tractors were not suited for European export trade, where the farms are small and intensive farming is the rule. How did American manufacturers meet this situation?

In an interview just published, Dr. D. H. Andrae, commercial attache of the Netherlands, said that more than 93% of the farms of Holland are less than 125 acres, while 72% are from 2 to 25 acres. "I have recently returned from a trip to the Middle West," said Dr. Andrae. "In Indianapolis I visited one of the factories that make tractors. I am much interested in this small, one-plow tractor and as soon as I receive the catalogs and illustrated material, descriptive of this plowing machine, I will forward it to my government."

These manufacturers of tractors had studied foreign agricultural methods. They had learned that the European farmer cultivates all the fence corners and close around the trees. They realized the necessity for a moderate priced machine that would do this work—that would plow, harrow, cultivate and do any work that can be done by one horse, ox or mule, and do it better and cheaper.

The same policy is being adopted

by other manufacturers. America is better equipped to compete in the world market than any other country today, and we are now in a fair way to secure our share of the business, now that American manufacturers are learning that all peoples do not keep to the right.

The Way of the World

A little child is born—a girl. It lives, and grows, and goes to school, and in time becomes a beautiful young lady who looks good to the eyes of men.

She is a good girl, pure in thought and act, but richly endowed with the fire of youth and life.

She is admired, petted, praised and courted by men—and envied by women.

If she is wise and circumspect—a Solomon in petticoats—she may go through life without blemish in the eyes of the world.

But if she makes one slip—commits even one small indiscretion—though the act may be innocent itself, her reputation is in the balance, with the chances ten to one it will be ripped to tatters.

Such is the way of the world—for women.

Another child is born—a boy.

It, too, develops into one of life and spirits, and pursues the way of most boys who travel the road to man's estate.

From boyhood to manhood there are many pitfalls for the unwary, into some of which he falls.

There is a certain charm to these pitfalls—these illicit pleasures—which induces him to continue along the forbidden road.

He makes many slips—commits many indiscretions—hits the high spots as he rushes through life.

But his reputation does not suffer—he earns another instead. He becomes a man of the world, and is considered a live wire.

Society beams, he yawns, and God frowns.

Such, also, is the way of the world—for men.

Elwood Haynes of Kokomo, leading prohibitionist of the state, has taken a sensible stand to the effect that there is no future need for the prohibition party since nation wide prohibition is in effect. And incidentally he intends to support Sen. Harding, Sen. Watson and the other republican candidates.

Fifth Cousin Roosevelt recently explained how Chairman Will Hays called the republican leaders to Washington when the president went to France the second time and decided to double-cross him. It is amazing the amount of misinformation that fellow gets in his system.

"Open Ear to World to be G. O. P. Policy", says a headline—which is some improvement over being blind and deaf both.

Current Comment

Needed to Uphold Harding

(The Muncie Press)

Senator James E. Watson, who is a candidate for re-election this year in Indiana, is one of the most widely known statesmen of the nation. He is one of the three or four outstanding figures in the United States Senate, and is the equal of any of them in eloquence, honesty and ability to serve the people. In casting a ballot for Watson a Hoosier has the knowledge that he is voting for a man who is almost as well known outside his home state as within it. He is not a statesman, but a national character, and he has spread the fame of Indiana throughout the United States.

Senator Watson's war record is one of which anybody might well feel proud. He was justly known as the friend not only of the soldier but of the soldier's family and while the war was on, devoted nearly his entire time to the cause of the man at the front and in camp.

Senator Watson is a close friend of Senator Harding and is a frequent visitor at the Harding home.

The latter is anxious that the Indiana senator be returned to the Senate this year and has said that it would be almost useless to elect a Republican president and not a Republican Senate. The great reforms that the Republican party expects to carry out will be held up if there be not a Republican Senate to assist the President. Even peace itself will be delayed indefinitely, and perhaps for years, if the unexpected should happen and the Democrats should gain control of the Senate, even though Harding might be elected by the greatest majority ever given a presidential candidate. It is just as important for any Indiana man calling himself a Republican to vote to return James E. Watson to the Senate as it is to cast a ballot for Harding for President.

THE PUP.

He tore the curtains yesterday,
And scratched the paper on the wall;
Her rubbers, too, have gone astray.
Ma says she lost them in the hall.
He tugged the table cloth and broke
A fancy saucer and a cup;
Though Bud and I think it a joke
Ma scolds a lot about the pup.

The sofa pillows are a sight,
The rugs are looking somewhat frayed
And there is ruin, left and right,
That little Boston bull has made.
He slept on Buddy's counterpane,
Ma found him there when she woke up.
I think it needless to explain
She scolds a lot about the pup.

And yet he comes and licks her hand
And sometimes climbs into her lap
And there, Bud lets me understand,
He very often takes his nap.
And Bud and I have learned to know
She wouldn't give the rascal up.
She's really fond of him although
She scolds a lot about the pup.

High Court Opens After Long Recess

Profiteering Section of Lever Act And Farm Loan Act to Come up This Term

IMPORTANT ANTI-TRUST SUIT

If Court Decides Lever Act Unconstitutional, All Profiteering Cases Will be Dropped

Washington, Oct. 2—The United States Supreme Court Monday will hold its first meeting since it handed down its famous decision upholding the constitutionality of national prohibition. The court has been in recess since that decision on June 7.

At the opening of its new term, the court is scheduled to hear and decide one important anti-trust suit, and cases involving the constitutionality of the profiteering section of the Lever act and the farm loan act.

Probably the most important anti-trust action—and the first case on the court docket is one against the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in which the government seeks to separate the railroad from its anthracite coal holdings. The government won a similar case against the Reading railroad. The Lehigh case is up for re-argument.

The suits involving constitutionality of the Lever law and farm loan acts are scheduled for argument beginning next Monday. All profiteering cases brought by the Department of Justice have been based on the section of the Lever law in dispute. If the court decides this section unconstitutional, all profiteering cases now on will be dropped and no other will be started. If the court upholds the law, the government can immediately file more cases in districts where unfavorable decisions by lower courts have temporarily halted proceedings under the act.

The Farm Loan case comes up from Kansas, where lower courts held the act unconstitutional, practically tying up all operations of the Farm Loan Board. Future operations hang on the decision by the supreme court.

Among the hundreds of other cases before the court is one involving valuable oil lands in dispute between Oklahoma and Texas and another which will determine whether West Virginia can pass a law to stop piping of its natural gas to Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The court Monday may break one of the time honored customs of the American government by not going to the White House. Since the early days of the government this has been the first act of the court at the beginning of each new term. The illness of President Wilson may prevent it this year.

REAL FOOTBALL OPENING TODAY

Every College Eleven in State Gets Into Action; Interest Centering on Bloomington

INDIANA MEETS IOWA TEAM

Also Plenty of Interest in Purdue-DePauw Battle—Wabash Meets Transylvania

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—While the 1920 football season was officially opened by the Indiana-Franklin game at Bloomington last Saturday, the real opening of the gridiron in the state was pulled off today.

Every college football team in the state will be in action. Some of the games are of unusual importance, having a direct bearing on not only the state championship but on the western conference championship.

The game with Franklin gave the first information to the football fans of the strength of Coach Stiehlin's eleven.

Indiana meets Iowa at Bloomington, Iowa as one of the big teams of the conference and should Coach Stiehlin's team win it would put Indiana high among the conference schools.

There is plenty of interest in the DePauw and Purdue battle at Lafayette. Last year Purdue defeated Coach Buss' Tigers 24 to 0. That was in a late season game. This year DePauw meets the Boilermakers in an early season game, and Purdue is a slow starter early in the year and Coach "Butch" Scanlon does not as a rule try to get his team going fast until later in the season.

There is a new factor in Hoosier football this year. Valparaiso university made such a good record last season that it has been given a place on the schedule of Harvard—Notre Dame—DePauw and Morningside. Valparaiso opens its season today with Lake Forest.

Coach Rockne's Notre Dame team will start its schedule by playing Kalamazoo at Notre Dame. The Catholics defeated the Kalamazoo team by a 14 to 0 score in the opening game last year.

Coach Pete Vaughn will see his team under fire for the first time. Coach Vaughn is directing Wabash college this year and the "Little Giants" play Transylvania at Crawfordsville. Rose Poly meets St. Louis University at St. Louis this week.

There is unusual interest in the Butler-Whittenburg game at Indianapolis. Butler has a far better team than it has had in some years. Whittenburg is the champion of the Ohio conference.

Earlham and Hanover colleges play. The Quakers were showing wonderful improvement at the close of the year last season.

ARLINGTON DEFEATS CARTHAGE, 21 TO 7

Wins on Home Grounds Friday and Will Help Fry Lid Off Here Next Week

SECONDS ARE ALSO VICTORS

Arlington high school, which will open the basketball season here next Friday evening at the Graham Annex gymnasium, won from Carthage Friday afternoon at Arlington, 21 to 7. The first half ended 4 to 4. Arlington played its first game a week ago last night, defeating Center, 26 to 13.

Last night's defeat was the first for Carthage, the Ripley township lads having won the opener a week ago. The Carthage seconds were defeated by the Arlington second team in a curtain raiser last night, 7 to 5. The games were played outdoors and the cold interfered.

Arlington's win over Carthage indicates that the team is strong this year and that Rushville will have no snap in the first game of the season. It has been customary for Arlington to play the first game of the fall in Rushville.

The summary:

Arlington (21) Carthage (7)
Rigsbee F. Ruby, Black
A. Birt F. J. Moore
D. Nelson C. Stewart, H'cote
Macy G. Henley
Marshall G. Herkless
Field goals—Rigsbee 1, Birt 3,
Nelson 4, Macy 1, Ruby 1, Moore 2;
foul goals—Rigsbee 3, J. Moore 1.

DODGERS PROVED CONSISTENT TEAM

Brooklyn Presented a Smooth-Working Business-Like Machine That Played Ball all The Time

NO SINGLE STAR IN THE BUNCH

Another Source of Strength Was its Second Line of Defense—Substitutes Always Ready

The Dodgers won the National League pennant because they were guilty on the following counts.

The best pitching staff and the best balanced club in the elder circuit, and one of the best managers in base ball.

Without a single star in the lineup, and generally referred to as "the most colorless team in the big leagues", Brooklyn presented a smooth-working, business-like machine that played consistently from the first game to the last. It went through the season more like a steam roller than a battering ram.

Another source of strength was its second line of defense. Whenever a player was disabled there was a substitute ready to step into his shoes and perform with the same efficiency as the regular.

After winning the National League championship in 1916—and losing the world series to the Red Sox, four games to one—the Dodgers slumped to seventh place in 1917. Manager Wilbert Robinson at once started rebuilding his club, developing youngsters and acquiring cast-offs from his rivals. Brooklyn finished fifth in 1918 and 1919. This year they were in the fight from the opening game.

Robinson has had a good pitcher for every day in the week, including Sunday. Up to the third week in September, his staff was rated this way:

Clarence Mitchell, won 5, lost 2, percentage .714; Burleigh Grimes, won 21, lost 10, percentage .77; Jeff Pfeffer, won 15, lost 9, percentage .625; Rube Marquard, won 9, lost 7, percentage .563; Al Mamaux, won 10, lost 8, percentage .556.

Sherrod Smith, won 10, lost 8, percentage .556; Leon Cadore, won 14, lost 13, percentage .519.

At that time the club rated second in batting to the Cardinals, with an average of .279.

Zach Wheat, who has won the league championship in "batting" in past seasons, was hitting .328; Grimes, .317; Ed Konetchy, .321; Hi Myers, .302; Bill Lamar, .297; Jimmy Johnston, .294; Ernie Krueger, .289; Otto Miller, .286; Pete Kilduff, .277; Tommy Griffiths, .264; Bernie Neis, .260; Ivy Olson, .257; Pfeiffer, .257; Ray Schmandt, .255; Rowdy Elliott, .245; Mitchell, .243; Smith, .243; Cadore, .226; Marquard, .164; McCabe, .162; Mamaux, .158, and Ward, .155.

Larry Sutton, the 63-year-old scout of the club, perhaps best explained the Dodgers' victory when he declared that "Uncle Robbie" loved 'em into a pennant." According to Sutton, there was never a hint of dissension on the club, a thing that probably has lost more championships than any other factor.

The players never considered the possibility of finishing anywhere but first", Sutton said. "Robinson had them believing they were invincible, and they pretty nearly were. They have gone out and won scores of games this year that appeared to be hopelessly lost. Never has there been a more magnificent esprit de corps in the National League."

Big Industrial Growth.

Products of industrial plants in Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, increased more than $100,000,000 in value in three years, and in 1918 aggregated almost a quarter of a billion dollars, according to a summary of reports issued by the statistical bureau of the Pennsylvania department of internal affairs. The greatest advance was in the value of the metal products, the county engaging heavily in the manufacture of munitions during the war and showing a value of $168,000,000 in metals produced or fabricated in 1918. One of the remarkable features of the county's industrial development is the growth of the chocolate and candy industry, with products valued at $20,000,000 in 1918, a huge gain in three years. Value of footwear and clothing produced is given at more than $5,000,000 per year, and anthracite coal $3,000,000.

Blessing in Disguise.
To be thrown upon one's own resources is to be cast into the very lap of fortune.—Franklin.

Heroes of Past World's Series

1903—Cy Young, Red Sox pitcher. He won three out of the five games from the Pirates.

1905—Billy Gilbert, Giant second baseman. Supposedly a weak hitter, he drove in a majority of his team's runs against the Athletics.

1906—George Roche, substitute infielder, who played third base for the White Sox. He won two games from the Cubs with three-baggers.

1907—Miner Brown and Ed Reulbach, Cub pitchers.

1908—Brown, Reulbach and Orvie Overall, Cub pitchers.

1909—Babe Adams, Pirate pitcher.

1910—Eddie Collins, Athletics' second baseman, and Jack Coombs, Athletics' pitcher.

1911—Frank Baker, Athletics' third baseman, whose home runs defeated the Giants.

1912—Tris Speaker, Red Sox center fielder, by his batting and Harry Hooper, Red Sox right fielder, by his fielding, featured the victories over the Giants.

1913—Baker, by his hitting, and Chief Bender and Eddie Plank, Athletics' pitchers, defeated the Giants.

1914—Hank Gowdy, Braves' catcher, batted his team to victory over the Athletics. Dick Rudolph was the star pitcher of the Braves.

1915—Duffy Lewis, Harry Hooper, and Tris Speaker, the Red Sox outfield, defeated the Phillies by their batting and fielding.

1916—Larry Gardner, Red Sox third baseman, was chiefly instrumental in defeating the Dodgers by his batting.

1917—Eddie Cicotte and Urban Fieber, White Sox pitchers, who won the games from the Giants by their twirling.

1918—George Whitteman, veteran of the minor leagues, who played left field for the Red Sox and was the chief factor in defeating the Cubs by his batting and fielding.

1919—Walter Ruethe, Red Sox pitcher, by his batting and Eddie Roush, Red Sox center fielder, by his fielding, were the big factors in most of the defeats of the White Sox. Dickie Kerr, White Sox youngster, pitched his team to two of its three victories.

BUYING COMFORT

—Or a Pile of Iron

When you buy a patented CaloriC Pipeless Furnace you buy much more than a mere "pile of iron."

You buy a money-back guarantee of warmth and comfort—all the heat you may want in coldest winter weather.

You buy economy that has been proved in over 100,000 buildings—that immediately eliminates one-third to one-half your fuel bill.

You buy healthful heat—pure, circulating, moist air; that is constantly being purified and that safeguards the health of your family.

You buy convenience that eliminates the dirt and drudgery, the dust and smoke of old-style heating methods.

You buy engineering service that studies your particular heating needs and makes the satisfactory operation of the CaloriC in your own home a scientifically assured fact.

You buy the basic patents that have made pipeless heating a revolutionary success—and that cannot be had in any imitations.

You buy the ideals of service and satisfaction that have been the guiding spirit in The Monitor Stove Company for over a hundred years.

Can you afford to be satisfied with less than CaloriC guaranteed satisfaction when you buy a heating plant?

Come in and see the CaloriC—and get the real facts of CaloriC leadership. No obligation to buy.

Facts About the CaloriC

The CaloriC costs less than a number of stoves, necessary to heat the same space. The extra comfort and convenience costs you nothing, and the fuel saving of one-third to one-half will pay the original cost in a few years.

The CaloriC is the original pipeless furnace triple-casing patent. It is not a pipe furnace with the pipes left off, but designed and built from the ground up for efficient pipeless heating. Over 100,000 CaloriCs in use in buildings of every type in every State in the Union.

The CaloriC is the most practical heating system to install in new or old homes, because it is simplest, most efficient, economical and healthful. No plumbing or alterations. No pipes to freeze. Usually installed in one day. Burns any fuel.

We sell the CaloriC because we know it is a proven success—and we can back the manufacturer's money-back guarantee with our own personal guarantee that you'll be completely satisfied.

No Reduction In Dodge Cars

Official confirmation of press dispatches from Detroit, announcing, that there would be no reduction in the price of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, has been received by Joe Clark the Dodge Brothers dealer in this city. A telegram from C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager to the local dealer, reads:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers motor cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

"Dodge Brothers announcement was no surprise to us," said Mr. Clark. In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers business principles. At no time have they ever demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts."

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory, has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present prices. In marketing their Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main Street Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Scot Hosier Monday night.

The Inter Nos club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. A. B. Gates near Homer Thursday afternoon. The hours were spent in a social way. Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served. Several members and one visitor were present.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Joy Ball Selby and James H. Hoy, both of Lebanon, Ind., which took place there yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy have left on a wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Lebanon, where the bridegroom is employed. The bride is the grand-daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Ball of this city and has many friends living here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rucker of Arlington entertained with a prettily appointed family dinner party yesterday. Fall flowers formed the center piece for the table and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, Mrs. Warren Nelson, Bert Jordan and Clyde Rucker, and Mrs. C. H. Reeves, Miss Lena Reeve and Miss Virginia Jordan, all of Flemingsburg, Ky.

Mrs. Curtis Hester entertained fifteen guests last evening at her home in North Main street honoring Miss Ruth Gronier, the visiting nurse who is to become the bride of Hubert Ryder, of North Carolina, this month. The party was in the form of a surprise miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be. Games and a marshmallow toast were the features of the evening. Miss Gronier leaves Tuesday for North Carolina.

Mrs. Rachel Bowen delightfully entertained the members of the O. N. T. club yesterday afternoon at her home in North Main street. Twelve members were present for the meeting and the following guests: Mrs. Ab Denning, Mrs. Carl Beher, Mrs. J. Hooker Wilson, and the Misses Margaret and Minnie Murphy and Frances Bowen. A musical program was given, followed by a social hour, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Amusements

"Alias Miss Dodd," Mystic
Those who write things in their diaries that no one else must read will probably run home and burn them after seeing Edith Roberts in "Alias Miss Dodd," her latest photoplay, which is shown at the Mystic Theatre today.

In this story Thomas Dodd, an old man whose life has always been most exemplary, depicts himself as a heartless love pirate and his nephew, Kent, as a "chip of the old block." He never dreamed that anyone else would ever read his memoirs. But they came into the hands of Jeanne, a heroically inclined little working girl, and she determines to make the two men atone for their sins and marry the women they have apparently wronged.

The whole thing is greatly complicated when Jeanne falls in love with Kent, herself. But she is determined to make them both "do the right thing" and she goes on with her plans. The climax comes when Jeanne learns of the terrible blind or she has made.

Jewels Adorn Women's Togs

"By MARJORIE"
(Written for United Press)
New York Oct. 2.—This is almost a bells on her fingers rings on her toes year in feminine fashion. Real jewelry and gilded baubles glitter over hats, suits, gowns, and even shoes.

The strange vegetation of "silver bells and cockle shells" that grew in the garden of Mistress Mary of Mother Goose fame, have been transplanted to the garden of fashion. This is literally true for bands of tiny frosted silver bells drip from hair brims, and even cockle shells, snail shells, and oyster shells have been pressed into the sartorial service and when painted, gilded, silvered, or shellaced adorn some nifty chapeau. The larger shells are used in lieu of a corsage flower. This, a Fifth Avenue house shows an olive green duvetyn gown untrimmied save for the large pale green clam shell that was fastened with chenille to match to the belt.

Spangles of jet, iridescent beads, colored beads of every hue, and great wooden beads are found everywhere on gowns and hats and prove that this is a jewelry year. Little appliques made of jet or coral chips are a novel trimming of the year.

So much for the mock jewelry realm, but when we look at the price-dazzling offerings of big houses, it is equally evident that jewelry is holding its own this year, and has a style all its own. This style is of the Orient. It is the garish gems that are most in demand and chains are wrought into strange filigree full of weird and grotesque figures.

Jade leads in popularity this year as it did last. The stone comes in the blue shades largely, although some ornaments made from the apple green shade are shown. Necklaces, rings, bracelets, handbag tops, umbrella-handles, vanity cases, and pins show jade used in a wide range of patterns. The combining metal, however, is always silver, and the sustaining metal achieves the bizarre in effect. Thus, a necklace is shown with the silver chain very coarse-linked about the throat, but widening into a finely filigreed pattern. This pattern is full of little Eastern figures, such as the scarab, lotus flower, date palm, and camel. Half a dozen pieces of jade in irregular shapes and sizes were scattered about the figures.

Conventional settings are almost unknown in rings, and the setting is generally about some rough stone rather than a polished gem. Bits of jade, turquoise matrixes, cameos, and unpolished pearls are favorites. The ring band is generally of silver or platinum, widening into a large pattern about the stone. The lotus flower is a favorite design in ring settings.

Beautiful bead chains are shown in a garish mixture of colors that blend beautifully with the autumn tints of suits and gowns. This is the Oriental, not again. Yellows, reds, green, and blues are found in one ornament. The effect is given by topazes, emeralds, garnets, and sapphires, set within a silver chain.

Of course, such jewelry staples as pearl necklaces, diamond rings, and rings and necklaces studded with opals or turquoises are shown, but they present few variations from former years. Engagement rings still chiefly supply the platinum, flat setting, although the gold ring with Tiffany setting is shown. Society's high moguls are wearing the softer gems, such as pearls and turquoises for evening wear rather than the glittering effects of diamond or emerald.

the most momentous decision he had ever arrived at. So, armed with a large, luxurious bunch of orchids, a Pomeranian pup, he sallied forth.

When he arrived at the house, he had forgotten what he wanted to say, and after looking at Grace's father he forgot what he had come for.

Then Melville felt blue, and went in search of adventure. He found it in the shape of a nice bump on his head, caused by violent contact with an empty bottle in the hands of an irate gangster. Then Melville decided life was too strenuous, anyway, and he would put an end to his share of it. When he found all of his friends not only ready but eager to help him, he changed his mind; he was a very clean-minded chap, he changed it every few minutes. Then the excitement comes thick and fast. Owen Moore will be seen as Melville Carruthers in his latest comedy, "The Poor Simp," at the Princess theater today.

WOMEN CAN'T VOTE IN TWO DISTRICTS

In South Negro Women Not Allowed to And in District of Columbia All Are Disfranchised

NEGRO MAN DISFRANCHISED

Since End of Reconstruction Days Whites Have Politically Dominated The South

Washington, Oct. 1.—Through the woman suffrage amendment is now part of the Constitution, and women of the Republic are on a political equality with men, there are two sections of the country where women will not exercise the privileges guaranteed under the Nineteenth Amendment.

In the Southern States the negro women will not be allowed to vote, no more so than the negro man. In the District of Columbia, the National Capital, which is completely disfranchised, neither men nor women can vote, even for municipal officials.

It is a fact taken for granted in the sixteen Southern States that negro women, despite ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment, cannot use the newly won ballot. In the South the negro man is not allowed to vote—a fact well known to every Southerner and to all Northern people who are conversant with political conditions throughout the country.

Since the end of reconstruction days the whites have politically dominated the sixteen Southern States. The corner stone of this domination has been disfranchisement of the negro. Were this not so and the negro allowed to vote on an equality with the whites in this section, there would be no more "Solid South." Instead most of the Southern States would be Republican, for the negro, when he does vote, is always found in the Republican column. It could not be otherwise as it was the Republican Party, under the immortal Lincoln, that abolished slavery. The Democratic Party has disfranchised the negro in the South.

During the campaign to pass the Nineteenth Amendment through Congress, Southern Senators and Representatives served notice on suffrage advocates that if the Amendment was ratified the South proposed to nullify it as far as the negro women were concerned.

In the final lineup when the Nine-are designed to accent the natural charm of every type of figure. Whatever your corset needs, there are many models created in accordance with the unchanging principles of beauty and good taste that will assure you graceful lines and faultless proportions with that unconsciousness of restraint that can only result from the healthful support of a perfectly fitting corset.

Our thorough understanding of modern corsetry makes certain your complete satisfaction.

The most beautiful line of a woman's figure is the graceful curve from the armpit to the ankle. The beauty of this line determines the effectiveness of all your clothes.

THE MAUZY CO.

teenth Amendment was passed by Congress, it was the Southern Senators and Representatives who voted against it to the last roll call.

A Democratic Congress, under leadership of President Wilson, refused to pass the Amendment. It was not until the Republicans gained control of House and Senate that the Amendment was passed.

Twenty-nine Republican States voted to ratify the Nineteenth Amendment, and only seven Democratic states refused to ratify. The Republicans can well claim the credit for ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment. Practically all the opposition to women suffrage came from the Bourbon South.

In the South the negro is now disfranchised by various devices which effectively destroy his political rights as an American citizen under the Constitution. The "literacy test," property qualifications, the "grandfather clause," which requires the voter's father or grandfather to have served in the Confederate Army, or plain "shotgun tactics" are resorted to by the white political bosses to keep the negro away from the polls. These maneuvers succeed and very few negroes are allowed to vote in any of the Southern States. If the negro insists on his Constitutional privilege he soon "disappears" according to Henry Lincoln Johnson, National Republican Committeeman from Georgia, himself a colored man.

There are approximately 4,000,000 negro women of voting age in the South. Under the white domination and the terrorist tactics of the Southern politicians practically all of them are disfranchised now, despite the Nineteenth Amendment. It is preposterous to suppose that if the negro man is not allowed to vote in the South the negro women will be given the ballot. In the Northern States, where the negro can vote on a parity with the white man, the negro voter in the November election will have an opportunity to avenge, in a measure, the political disfranchisement of his brothers and sisters in the South. But he can register his indignation only by voting the Republican ticket.

SEASON FOR MITES AT HAND
If Hens Are Dropping Off in Egg Production It Would Be Good Plan to Look for Pests.
The mite season is now at its height, and if one's hens are dropping off in production faster than they really should—and if the young stock are not growing as well as they ought to, it would be well to carefully inspect their sleeping quarters for red mites. The red mites hide during the daytime in the cracks and crevices under the roosts, or at either end where they are held up; they may also be found in the nests or in the cracks on the sides of the building. To eliminate, spray or paint with kerosene and crude carbolic acid, or, better still, use carbolinum.
INBREEDING IS NOT FAVORED
Experiments in Hands of Amateur Are Usually Expensive—Many Animals Discarded.
Inbreeding experiments are generally expensive, especially in the hands of the amateur, for as a result of inbreeding, the percentage of animals which must be discarded is inevitably increased enormously. However, the animals which stand the test of inbreeding are worth infinitely more than animals of the same quality which have been produced by ordinary breeding. It is by inbreeding or by that dilute form of inbreeding known as linebreeding that the greatest progress is made by our best breeders.

PEPSINCO
It's a useless waste of good fuel and needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness, if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment; if your food does you no good; if food distresses, rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is Pepsinco.

"AMERICA FIRST DAY", OCT. 18TH

Big Celebration is Planned on That Day at Marion When Two Candidates Will Speak

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED

Harding And Coolidge Will Address Throng, Laying Stress on all

First Voters

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—The biggest political and patriotic event in American history is to be staged at Marion, Ohio, on Monday October 18, when Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, and Governor Calvin Coolidge of Mass., Republican nominee for Vice-president, will speak from Senator Harding's front porch on America First day.

In this great wind up of the now famous front porch campaign Indiana will be asked to take a particularly important and active part by the Republican National committee. Mr. John L. Moorman of Knox, Indiana, has been assigned the task of organizing Indiana for this greatest of all drives and he confidently expects that this state alone will send from 25,000 to 40,000 people to Marion on October 18.

Mr. Moorman was in Indianapolis Wednesday perfecting plans for the expedition and has obtained the unqualified and enthusiastic approval for the project from State Chairman E. M. Wasmuth and from the entire membership of the state central committee.

Those who go to Marion will travel by automobiles and the great caravan will be the most spectacular single feature ever staged for a political or any other similar purposes in this country. Ohio is to be represented by thousands and the plans have also been extended to Southern Michigan and Western Pennsylvania. Other states will send smaller delegations by special train or special cars and already assurances have been received from several western states that they will be well represented.

The work of securing recruits for the great pilgrimage in Indiana is to be delegated to the county Republican committee and already reports indicate unusual interest.

Those desiring to go are requested to report at once to their county chairman as this will save much of the work of canvassing. Local committees also are to be named in each district to assist in seeing that Indiana is represented by a record breaking crowd.

In addition to being America First Day, October 18 at Marion is to be First Voters Day as well, and Senators Harding and Governor Coolidge

AGREE TO RELIEVE SCHOOL COAL FAMINE

Eschbach And Representative Mine Owners Held Conference in Terre Haute

TO SEND LIST TO MINERS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—Definite and concrete means for the relieving of the coal famine in the schools and public utilities have been adopted by the representative mine owners in Indiana and the state coal commission, Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the coal commission, said today.

Every afternoon Eschbach will send to the mine operators at Terre Haute a list of schools and utilities in need of fuel and the operators will expedite coal to these places without delay. This was the agreement reached by the coal mine operator and Jesse Eschbach in the conference at Terre Haute this week.

The first list was sent to Terre Haute. The conference was attended by representatives of the operators and assembled in the hotel on the request of Eschbach.

Immediate action will be taken in the list sent out yesterday by Eschbach to relieve the 6 schools reported on the verge of closing. Among these were the schools at Crawfordsville and Greenfield and several utilities.

1ST BAPTIST RALLY DAY

The First Baptist church will hold an all-day meeting tomorrow and a basket dinner will be served. The services will be in observance of Rally Day and will take the form of a home-coming.
